

Date of Report: April 25 2013

Title: The effectiveness of team-based learning on learning outcomes in health professions education: A Best Evidence in Medical Education Systematic Review

Group Members:

Mim Fatmi, BSc, Medical Student, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Lisa Hartling, MSc, PhD, Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Tracey Hillier, BSc, MD, CCFP, FRCPC, Diagnostic Radiologist, Misericordia Hospital, Assistant Professor, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Sandra Campbell BA, MLS, AALIA(CP), Public Services Librarian and Library Liaison to Medicine, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Anna E. Oswald*, BMSc, MD, MMed, FRCPC, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

*Team Leader

Summary of Review Status:

We have completed all searches (electronic, grey literature and hand searches).

We have completed title and full text screening and have identified 14 relevant papers that meet study criteria.

We have performed data extraction and quality assessment on these papers.

We have finished data synthesis.

We have presented the completed work at the Canadian Conference in Medical Education as a poster in April 2012 in Banff, Canada (it won 1st prize for research poster).

We have presented the work at the 2012 AMEE meeting (Lyon) as an oral short communication.

We have written and submitted the manuscript to BEME for review.

We have received reviewer comments (8 pages) and are in the process of revising the manuscript and responding to these reviewer comments.

Anticipated Date of Completion:

June 2013